Communist Plot Against Legion Exposed in West

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23—Direct charges of a widespread plot on the part of Communists and other subversive elements to embarrass the American Legion and other veterans' organizations were hurled today by Dr. Russell W. Starr, commander of the Los Angeles County Council of the Legion, and other executives.

With the American Legion national convention in Los Angeles now less than a month away, radicals are scheming to embarrass the organization by attempting to create the impression the Legion, and other organizations

Jersey Coast Cities Jarred By 'Quake'

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23 (INS)—Apparently centered in the Delaware river valley, a series of five earthquakes rocked this city and adjacent New Jersey, Delaware and eastern Pennsylvania last night and early today in one of the strongest disturbances on record here.

Thousands of residents throughout the area, some of them shaken from their beds, flooded police and fire stations and other emergency centers with queries.

In Philadelphia, homes shook, pictures were knocked from the walls and dishes were broken by the first tremor, two minutes in duration.

Following the succeeding shocks, Mayor S. Davis Wilson rushed to City Hall at 2 a. m. and ordered an immediate inspection of a 40-ton piece of granite recently placed over a pedestrian archway to replace a similar stone found resting precariously on weakened supports. The new block was found securely in place.

The 22-story City Hall in Camden and the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital there were shaken. At Mount Holly, N. J., residents ran from their homes in belief an explosion had occurred in the vicinity.

Held in $5000 On 43 Charges

David A. Parks, 38, who gave an address in the North End, Boston, was held in $5000 in Lynn court today on 43 charges.

There were 11 counts of breaking and entering in the night-time, one count of breaking and entering in the daytime, 15 counts of forging and uttering, 13 counts of larceny by check and one count of having burglars' tools in his possession.

Parks was arrested after a struggle by Sergeant William Gillespie of the Lynn police, who said he found him loitering in the vicinity of a gasoline filling station on Essex street, Lynn.

According to police, Parks admitted numerous thefts of money, cigars and cigarettes, and named, they said, a "fence" in Boston through whom he disposed of various articles.

Brookline Now PWA-Minded

Previously refusing all offers of federal unemployment funds, Brookline has finally "gone WPA."

After this precedent-breaking surrender by the selectmen, the next special town meeting will be asked to approve $140,000 grants for two public works projects, of which the federal government will be requested to contribute $63,000. A third project, at a cost of $50,000, with federal aid of $25,000 is also being considered.

The proposed improvements include a new fire station and drill school to cost $125,000 and traffic lights to cost $15,000. It is also proposed to build an addition to the town hall at an expense of $500,000.

British Trade Pact Aids U. S.

By KINGSBURY SMITH

International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Aug. 23—American motor car manufacturers, fruit growers and wheat producers will be among the chief beneficiaries of the Anglo-American trade agreement now nearing completion, it was learned today.

Great Britain has tentatively agreed to grant substantial concessions to the United States on automobiles, fresh and dried fruits, wheat meal and flour, as well as on hard, hams, women's shoes and clothing, and on certain types of electrical machinery.

AUTO FIRMS BENEFIT

American automobile manufacturers are being offered a 10 per cent preferential over all other foreign cars, excepting, of course, British Empire manufactured cars.

Raw apples, oranges, grapefruit and pears will be allowed to enter duty free.

Other fresh fruits likely to be placed on the free list include melons, pumpkins, lemons, limes, grapes, peaches, plums, apricots, cherries, gooseberries, strawberries and pineapples.

The tariff on American dried fruits also will be virtually wiped out.

One of the most important British concessions to American agriculture is the offer to place wheat meal and flour on the free list.

ON BOOTS AND SHOES

American-made rubber boots are likely to be placed on the free list.

A 5 per cent preferential has been offered on American-made women's shoes and slippers of leather or imitation leather.

American-made women's skirts, costumes, dresses and coats, other than of wool, will be granted a 5 per cent preferential under the present offers.

In return for these concessions, Britain expects liberal ones from the United States on woolen goods, worsteds, leather goods, especially men's boots and shoes, linens, cotton laces, velvets and velveteens, unmanufactured flax, handkerchiefs, jute, pickled salted herrings,

Weinberg said Schultz told him to arrange to meet Hines and "do what was to be done if I need to get in touch with him."

"Hines said I could get in touch with him at his home, 444 Central Park West or on certain nights at his club," said Weinberg.

PAID HIM $500

Weinberg testified that he met Hines about ten days after the meeting at which he claimed the Tammany district leader agreed to "fix" things for the syndicate. He said he met him in front of the dates and places when the alleged payments to Hines were made.

Dewey turned to the dark-skinned witness, who had been identified as Schultz's gangster, and asked if he remembered every place he had gone six years ago. Weinberg replied, "Yes."

Weinberg insisted that during the entire spring of 1932 he continued to pay Hines.

RAISE IN PAY

"It was $500 a week at first," he said. "But in the summer it went up to $1000."

Weinberg said he had then discussed the policy business with Hines in May or June, 1932.

"I had just talked with Schultz," he related, "I told Schultz it was time we should discuss the matter of

Boston After Dark

By GEORGE HOLLAND

THE "GRAVES CASE"—which should produce as interesting reading to Boston as the Jimmy Hines trial to New York—will usurp the headlines again, after the present flurry, not later than September 15, which is five days before the primary elections.

Mention of Hines brings to mind that his son, Philip, was a very popular lad in Boston five or six years ago when he was attending Harvard . . . Young Hines had ambition to become a professional boxer, and worked out daily at a Hemenway street gymnasium . . . Moreover, experts thought he had a chance for the "big time."

You will see more local members of the American Legion heading toward this year's national convention in Los Angeles, which fortuitously takes place on the very eve of the state primaries, than in many years previous—when the big shindig was much nearer home. Even in this distance, the battleground for the state officers begins to resemble the political one.

Open Season On Vegetable Plates Now

By MARTHA LEE

No one ever ponders about what to cook for Thanksgiving or the Fourth of July. Thanksgiving means roast turkey, with turnip or squash and boiled onions; July Fourth brings baked salmon and green peas. But right now—late August—is open season for vegetable plates.

Vegetable plates are not a part of hoary tradition. Common sense, not sentiment, prompts this custom. Tired summer appetites demand variety, garden freshness and interest. Both markets and gardens are overflowing with the answer—vegetables.

Cohasset Premiere For Cain's '7-11'

BY GEORGE HOLLAND

It would be easy to write a smart alecky review of James M. Cain's play "7-11," which had its premiere at the Cohasset Town Hall last night with the South Shore Players, Director Alexander Dean, participating.

One might conclude the George John Nathan Award is devoted to him by reminding that the past year's winner never sings twice. And the entire foregoing sentence is a cheap, one-directional stab at the respondent who knows that Mr. Chen is neither of a couple of singing norals critics of "The Frontiers Always Traps, I was and some made." The point of the column sentence is that it would be a surprise if it were not to be reviewed of him. M. for a. p. 11 and his audience is "in" on the homicide from its first fatal shot. It doesn't help, unfortunately.

Nancy Conrad and Sheila Barrett do their competent best with the cameras they are given to portray real Gavin Thomas as someone a character actor as there is in New York is a standout. The 34-year-old son of a well-known police force named Gorman is exceptionally good.

It is a rebuff for a queue in its power. In this opinion, it has no right to proceed further toward the way where the page is to appear. Back turned with a "no," prove the point when critical acclaim has established a ready-made, that the Chin will have a unique and compelling core. AMERICA'S CHAMPION SHORTSTOP GETS UP EARLY FOR WHEATIES!

Joe Cronin, One of the Favorites of all Boston Fans, Says: "One Dish You Can Always Get Me Up For is That Keen-Tasting 'Breakfast of Champions'!"

For years Joe Cronin, one of baseball's few playing managers, has spread-eagled the field at his position—and this season is one of his best. Right now this brilliant shortstop is No. 2 Bosocker in clouting the apple, second only to that prodigious batter and fellow Wheaties fan, Jimmie Foxx.

"When Wheaties are on the table, crackling in cream or milk and topped with almost any fruit, I'm on my way to the best breakfast that's been invented!" declares the popular Red Sox pilot.

Try Joe Cronin's "Breakfast of Champions" yourself tomorrow morning. Ask your grocer for Wheaties today!

MR. BOSTON

Talun Asked for | Dr. O'Callaghan to
Heart Balm | Box at Garden

By JACK CONWAY

STANISLAUS TALUN, six foot seven inch Polish wrestler who scales 265 pounds, has something to worry about as a Buffalo woman is suing him for $50,000 for heart balm . . . The suit has been entered in Ohio as a New York statute doesn't permit such actions . . . Primo Carnera, another athletic giant, also had his legal headaches . . . An English girl ended up with a $17,500 judgment against "Satchel Felt" when she told a jury that Primo failed to keep his promise to marry her.

Mr. Boston

I never could understand why a girl should grieve because a boxer or wrestler ran out of an agreement on marriage . . . An unhappy husband might decide to use friend wife as a sparring partner.

Dr. Patrick O'Callaghan, Irish athlete who came to this country to wrestle and to box, is going to do a little fighting for the Goodwin A. C. at the Garden next month . . . O'Callaghan will probably be pitted against Steve Dudas of the Billy McCarney stable . . . O'Callaghan was an Olympic hammer throwing champion, and if he can get half as much power behind his right hand socks as he does back of his hammer throws, he will do all right in the fistic game . . . O'Callaghan is 28 years old, and says he has taken part in 100 ring bouts as a simon pure.

Emil Schultz, German heavyweight, is back in Boston after losing a close bout to Buddy Knox at Dayton, Ohio . . . Johnny Buckley would like to send Schultz against Knox in a Boston ring . . . Lou Brouillard, who handled Schultz against Knox, is ready for the ring wars again, his injured ankle having fully recovered.

Tennis and Crew Racing

YOU DON'T require as much vitality to play college football as you do to excel at tennis . . . For college football players could stand the terrific pace that will be set by the tennis stars at Longwood this week . . . Tennis and four-mile crew racing are the most strenuous sports . . . Golf is a rocking chair pastime compared with tennis.

Doctors will tell you that tennis is a great strain on the heart, and that persons past 40 years of age should not play it . . . Tennis, crew racing, boxing and such strenuous pastimes are for the young . . . Even Bill Tilden, tennis' greatest star of the past 20 years, had to do considerable coasting after he celebrated his fortieth birthday.

The big men of football have usually been distinct failures when they have gone in for boxing . . . They have been unable to keep going for three minutes at top speed without dropping from fatigue . . . Try shadow boxing or rope skipping for three minutes and you will get the answer for yourself.

Jack Sharkey is back in town after a week on the road refereeing wrestling bouts at Niagara Falls and in Canada . . . Sharkey says a "Masked Marvel" (and he refuses to give me the young man's name) is packing them in at Niagara Falls . . . Sharkey added that the "Masked Marvel" is one of the better heavyweight wrestlers, and has been built up on a villain . . . Sharkey says that when the "Masked Marvel" won the match he refereed at Niagara Falls the crowd became so incensed that the wrestlers, Sharkey and some of the other officials were obliged to barricade themselves in the dressing room until police arrived on a riot call.

The promoter, who occupied a seat in the press row, was knocked cold by an infuriated fan . . . The fact the temperature was 100 degrees inside of the building where the show took place merely added to the excitement of the crowd.

Joe Cronin Day Sept. 7

JOE CRONIN DAY at Fenway Park on September 7 should be a tremendous success . . . As "All-American" shortstop, Cronin rates a bow . . . Cronin has batted and fielded brilliantly this year, while he has managed to keep the Sox fired even when things were not going well . . . Cronin has repeatedly proved he is one of the most courageous characters associated with baseball.

Police Commissioner Joe Timilty, a red hot baseball fan, is chairman for Joe Cronin Day . . . I saw the Police Commissioner at the Hatherly Country Club last week where he led the grand march at the Seitate policemen's ball with Mrs. M. Stewart, wife of Police Chief M. Stewart . . . Postmaster Peter Tague also attended the affair at the Hatherly Country Club, and told me of the great friendship former President Coolidge had for Senator Jim Timilty of Roxbury, Joe's dad.

"Coolidge once told me," said the Postmaster, "that next to the members of his own family he had his deepest affection for Jim Timilty."

Paul Bowser dropped into town to adjust a few matters pertaining to his fall wrestling season, but will return to the Grand Circuit races at Syracuse . . . Paul would like to come up with another Tara or a DeSota . . . Great race horses are as scarce as top wrestlers and boxers.

A part of the receipts from tomorrow night's show at the Arena will be turned over to a member of the Boston appearing fraternity who is seen to undergo a major operate at a local hospital . . . This accounts for the large numbers of boxers and wrestlers who will appear on the card.

Hubbell's Future Still Uncertain

Hubbell had a chip of bone removed from his elbow yesterday, and hospital authorities said he rested well last night, although somewhat uncomfortable from effect of the general anesthetic used for the operation.

A small incision was made at the left elbow and several splinters of bone removed from near the joint. The arm will be kept in a splint for about two weeks. Dr. J. Spencer Speed, Memphis orthopedist who performed the operation said when Hubbell will be able to pitch again "must be determined later."

Hubbell's arm ailment was made known last Thursday after he refused from the mound in the fifth inning in a game with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Later the Giant outler said the injury developed during the 1936 campaign.

Gridmen Report At Classical

Bill Joyce, veteran Lynn Classical High School grid mentor, has issued his first call for candidates and a large turnout is expected this afternoon.

The wily Lynn coach refuses to let Fenbooby, which reported yesterday, get the jump on him, as his charges meet the Tanners in a night game on September 16. Next week schoolboy football will be on in earnest. More than a dozen schools will start working out daily.

Henry Learned Valuable Lesson in Defeat; Took Cockiness Out of Coming Ring Champion

This is the third in a series of thirteen articles by Henry Armstrong, called by experts "the greatest fighter for his weight" in the ring today. Carried to the top of his profession by intelligent perseverance, "Hammering Henry" will tell an intimate story of the struggle that brought him the three championships of the world—from amateur to preliminary boy to the highest awards of pugilism.

By HENRY ARMSTRONG

(World Featherweight, Welterweight and Lightweight Champion)

(Copyright, 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

When I first started fighting around Pittsburgh I hadn't taken on my present ring name, Armstrong, and still was known by my right name, Jackson. But that doesn't matter anyhow. There is no record of my bouts prior to 1936 and nothing of consequence happened before that time—except that knockout which I suffered in my first professional fight.

My brother Harry and I had arrived in Pittsburgh, virtually penniless. We talked Promoter Jules Beck into giving me a fight, and finally I was matched with Al Iovino. You probably never heard of Al. I hadn't either. But I learned a valuable lesson from him—steer clear of southpaws. They sometimes give experienced fighters plenty of trouble because they are used to fighting right-handers; while a right-hander may not meet more than two or three southpaws in his entire ring career. Some don't meet any. They avoid them.

Anyway, I had never fought more than three rounds, the regulation distance for amateurs, and my initiation into the ranks of the professionals was scheduled for six. I was counted out in the fifth round.

That was one of the most discouraging incidents in my whole life. But it did me a world of good. I had begun to think pretty well of myself and that knockout took some of the cockiness out of me.

NEVER HURT BY PUNCH

Fortunately I wasn't badly beaten up and I wasn't hurt. And that reminds me of a point I'd like to bring out as an explanation of my whole boxing style. I can't recall ever having been badly hurt by a punch and I never tire. Earlier in my career I would be stung occasionally by a good, clean shot to the chin or body, but from what I've seen I don't think I felt the punch nearly as much as most other fighters would have.

Since I've learned to box and move around and ride punches I seldom ever know I've been hit; as for getting tired, the longer the fight lasts the better I seem to feel.

But I didn't know anything about riding punches and very little about boxing the night I met Al Iovino, who handed me a big disappointment and shock with his elbouts on the chin, but not to the extent of making me decide to quit fighting.

ARRIVED HOME BROKE Two weeks later I was in action again, won an easy decision, then Harry and I headed back for St. Louis with what little money we had left from my two Pittsburgh fights.

And that was little enough. We had had to meet all expenses out of the purses of two preliminary bouts on unimportant cards—one an all-Negro show—and we arrived home in just about the same shape that we were in when we reached Pittsburgh—broke.

Henry Armstrong continues the amazing story of his ring career in tomorrow's Boston Evening American. Don't miss it.

Park Leaguers Clash Tonight

Manager Johnny Delang takes his surprising Holy Name club onto Fallon field tonight with a 2-1 edge in games over the St. Augustine of South Boston in the Boston Park League finale.

Deciding after last Friday night's clash that the West Roxbury boys were jittery before the home folks, Delang led with ace Tommy Bileadeau Curt Fullerton, last night at South Boston, and his strategy worked out well, with the former big leaguer putting the youngsters out in front with a canably-pitched 4-1 victory. Coasting along on a 4-0 lead, the eager veteran snapper held the upper hand all the way, and only once was he called upon to really bend down. This was in the third frame when Pitcher Sheehan led off with a double and Mahler was walked. Both moved along on an infield out and then Tommy Bileadeau was purposely walked to fill the sacks. Curt then put on the pressure to fan Joe Horne.

Manager Bill Benson will send young Frank Hadley, who lost the opener, back on the hill tonight, with either Patrone or Thompson doing the chucking for the Holy Namers.

McAdoo Denies KKK Tieup

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23 (AP)—A campaign statement charging that Sen. William G. McAdoo was a member of the Ku Klux Klan in 1924, when he sought the Democratic nomination for President, was denied as "wantonly false" by the California senator today.

Peiron M. Hall, former United States attorney now campaigning for Sheridan Downey in the Democratic senatorial primary, displayed before his audience at a Los Angeles meeting what he said was a Klan "Imperial passport" made out to "William G. McAdoo," and signed by "H. W. Evans, imperial wizard and imperial cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan."

Senator McAdoo replied: "Any statement directly or indirectly linking my name with the Ku Klux Klan is wantonly false and any paper connecting my name with that organization also is wantonly false."

Big Train Enters Politics

GERMANTOWN, Md., Aug. 23 (AP)—Walter Johnson, Ring of speedball pitchers until he retired from baseball to become a farmer, still has a fast one.

He surprised his friends last night by filing as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Montgomery County commissioner within 10 minutes of the midnight deadline. Previously he had said he would stick to farming.

DODGERS BUY FARM

DAYTON, O., Aug. 23 (AP)—The Dayton Ducks, mid-Atlantic baseball team, has been taken over by the Brooklyn Dodgers as a farm.

Ticky Ford On Pure Card

Undoubtedly the greatest open air amateur boxing carnival ever presented in New England will have its showing tomorrow night when the Dilby Field becomes the site of the inter-city championship bouts with teams from Albany, N. Y.; Providence, R. I.; Berlin, N. H. and our own powerful team all set to commit fistic mayhem.

New York is reported to have sent down the most effective group of mitt-wilders ever assembled on a single boxing team and they are optimistic concerning victory in the majority of crowns if not all of them.

Dom Perfeetti, brilliant invader from the big city, will be the heavy favorite of the N. Y. group but he probably hasn't reckoned with a couple of Boston youngsters, Guy Vitagliano and Zeke DiTomassio, both capable performers.

"Ticky" Ford, our pride and joy since he became the ruler of the nation in the 135-pound class, is absolutely the best bet of the Boston team if past performances count for anything.

Berlin, N. H. and Providence, R. I., serve notice that they are not to be sold short. They feel that although they are not getting too much consideration in the fights won that they have a potential champion.

Dodgers Purchase Ex-Nat Gardner

NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers announced today the purchase of Freddie Sington, former all-American football star at University of Alabama, from Chattanooga of the Southern Association. He will report to the Dodgers after Labor Day on a "loek" basis.

Sington, an outfielder, was with Washington last year and is leading the Southern Association with 39 doubles.

HURLEY BOWS ON TAX SPLIT

In a surprising about face, Governor Hurley today signed the Republican-drafted bill distributing the $5,000,000 of unexpended gasoline tax funds to cities and towns for highway work relief.

The governor's action caught the legislature unprepared, and when his special message announcing the signing was received in the House there were only about 40 members present.

This number doubled, and continued to increase as the special message was read by Speaker Horace T. Cahill, who had led the fight in opposition to Hurley's attempt to have the gas tax funds placed under control of the State Public Works Department instead of the Republican-controlled cities and towns.

ENDS HISTORIC SESSION

The $5,000,000 appropriated from the gas tax to the cities and towns brings to the record-breaking figure of $81,579,964 this year's appropriations, including the budget.

Immediately after the governor's message was read, the House proceeded to defeat his sponsored bond issue of $500,000 for improvements at the Chelsea Soldiers' Home, by a vote of 128 to 69—less than the required two-thirds.

Hurley's signing ended a deadlock of many weeks and made possible the legislative proroguing.

Graves Names 2 Who 'Paid' Him

"A prominent Boston lawyer" and an equally prominent "business executive" have been named by Frederick H. Graves as the men who paid him $12,600 to be the "star witness" in the Curley-Santuososso case, District Attorney William J. Foley of Suffolk County declared today.

"Graves named these two to Captain John McCarthy who brought him back here from Chicago," Foley said.

"McCarthy tells me, too, that Graves told him one of the payments was made in St. Louis."

SADDENED BY MAIL

Meanwhile, in dejected mien, Graves settled down today at Charles street jail to wait for more than three weeks for his trial on a perjury charge in connection with the city's suit against Curley and Santuososso.

As he reposed in jail he continued to be harassed, some of his forwarded mail from the West, according to officials being bills from hotels and other establishments.

He still wore today, the alpaca suit in which he was arrested Saturday in Chicago as a bad check passer.

Prisoners not yet tried are 21—

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—A witness told the House un-American probe committee today the "Stalinist-supported chairman" of the "alien directed" American Youth Congress had received a letter from President Roosevelt in 1936 lauding the congress for aiding democracy.

Prof. Edward I. Fenlon of the philosophy department of Brooklyn College added that another of the President's family has gone out of the way unwittingly to inspire the alien spirit that undoubtedly controls this congress."

Fenlon did not name the member of the family immediately but later said it was Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The congress to which Fenlon referred met in Milwaukee in 1935. He said the President also sent a letter of regard to the American Youth Congress at its last December meeting at Poughkeepsie.

REVEALS PROGRAM

Fenlon, bespectacled middle-aged professor who came to Brooklyn College from St. Mary's College in California eight years ago, said there was a deliberate "milted front program to 'pull the wool over the eyes of the authorities and people'."

The witness also contended that the World Youth Congress at Vassar College was radical-dominated and a "danger" to Democracy.

Previous witnesses before the committee had mentioned that Mrs. Roosevelt had addressed this group last week and in so doing had been "exploited" by Communists.

Fenlon also told the committee that Brooklyn College "might quite fairly be labeled a hotbed of propaganda" and Communist activity.

SAYS MENACE UNREALIZED

Fenlon prefaced his mention of the President's name with a suggestion that Communism's menace would be minimized if authorities realized its dangers and agreed on means to check it.

Fenlon said Mrs. Roosevelt had contributed financially to the World Youth group as well as addressing it.

Says $16,300 'Just Went'

In a bewildering transition from a respected resident of a well-to-do Needham colony, and leader in the Needham Golf Club, George C. Tribble, 48, stood in the lineup at Boston police headquarters today.

There he insisted that he could not tell what he did with the $16,300 he is charged with stealing from his employer, the Collateral Loan Company, Inc., of Cornhill.

He has had "no lady friend" nor has he gambled, Tribble declared in answer to questions by Sergeant Harold J. Walkins; and he maintains no summer home and has no recreational expenses.

Out of his salary of $105 a week
